

The UCSC Sociology Colloquia Series presents:

Grad Student Workshop:

Efficient and Effective Planning: Grants, Conferences, and Job Market

Thursday, May 7th, 2015
12:00-1:45pm
201, College 8, UCSC

Graduate school requires balancing the needs of teaching, researching, publishing, conferencing, and grant writing. This workshop is designed to help you create an efficient and effective plan for the next school year.

We will hear from Sociology Ph.D. candidates Yvonne Kwan, Claudia Lopez, and Tracy Perkins, who have learned to balance and prioritize these various tasks as well as developing time management strategies. Students will be introduced to a collective timeline that will include deadlines for departmental filings, grant applications, fellowship applications, conference paper submissions, and job applications. Last, but not least, we will hear job/post-doc report backs from two successful candidates!

Please bring any timelines you currently utilize.

Refreshments will be provided.
