

The Sociology Department is pleased to present:

Sociology
Undergraduate
Student Workshop:
The Graduate Student Experience

Thursday, November 13th, 2014
6:00PM - 7:30PM

College 8 Red Room

Contemplating between attending graduate school, getting established in the job market, completing an internship, or backpacking through Europe? Hear what it's like in a day in the life of a grad student, what it's like being a TA and how big of an influence faculty play in your academic career?

Join current and former sociology students Andrea Lloyd (Behavioral Health Clinician), Tracy Perkins (UCSC Sociology Ph.D. Candidate), Danny Rodriguez (UCSC Oakes College Academic Advisor), and Jimiliz Valiente-Neighbours (UCSC Sociology Ph.D. Candidate) as they share their experiences related to graduate school. Hear how they decided and how they prepared.

Have questions? Email Sociology Undergraduate Advisor Tina Nikfarjam at tnikfarj@ucsc.edu or join the conversation on Twitter, follow @sociologyatucsc and tag your tweets #SocyUG