

APPLICATION FOR DESIGNATED EMPHASIS IN SOCIOLOGY

To apply for a Designated Emphasis in Sociology, submit this form. The form will be reviewed by the Graduate Director. If approved, the student will identify a Sociology faculty advisor and work on fulfilling the requirements:

Designated Emphasis requirements

- A Sociology faculty advisor who will serve on the Qualifying Exam committee.
- Piece of scholarly writing in the area of sociology
 - A seminar paper, a master's essay, paper submitted for publication or a chapter of the doctoral dissertation.
- Coursework
 - 2 core courses
 - Socy 201: The Making of Classical Theory
 - Socy 202: Contemporary Sociological Theory
 - 1 methods course
 - Socy 203, 204, 205, 206, 209, 241, 242, 282
 - 2 Socy graduate seminar electives
 - Socy 208, 250, 293, 297, 299 do not count as electives

Name: _____ Date: _____

Email: _____ Student ID: _____

Home department: _____ Expected graduation qtr: _____

Home dept faculty advisor name: _____

Home dept faculty advisor signature: _____

Do you have someone in mind to be your Sociology advisor? If so, who?

Email your CV to the SOCY Graduate Program Coordinator.

The application is: Approved Denied

Comments:

Graduate Director signature: _____ Date: _____