Previously Approved Elective Course Substitutions for Fall 2018

Review Course Substitution information on our website:
https://sociology.ucsc.edu/undergraduate/majors-minors/course-subs.html

- How many elective course substitutions am I allowed?
  - Sociology BA: 2 out of the 5 required electives in the major may be course substitutions
  - LALS/SOCY Combined BA: Up to 3 substitutions allowed from an Education Abroad Program only
  - Sociology BA w/ GISES or GISES Minor: Course substitution policy does not apply. Students may take any upper-division, 5-unit course that can be justified for their project or related to the program. http://gises.everettprogram.org/electives
  - Sociology Minor: 1 out of the 3 required electives in the minor may be course substitution

- Once you have passed the course with a C or better or Pass: A course substitution request form must be submitted online in order to have the course applied to your major. No syllabus required for courses that have been previously approved. http://sociology.ucsc.edu/undergraduate/forms.html

- To Petition a New Course: The course must be 5-units, upper-division, sociological, and the syllabus must be submitted with the Course Substitution Petition form to the Undergraduate Advisor. You may also submit the petition online http://sociology.ucsc.edu/undergraduate/forms.html

- Double Counting: If the course substitution you wish to apply to sociology is already being used towards another major or minor you are declared in, then the double counting policy must be applied. Please check in with your advisor to see whether you are eligible to double count in your programs.

- Courses with Prerequisites/Restriction: Please check the course to verify if you are eligible.
  - Courses with an asterisk – These courses have no prerequisites or restrictions, or they have prerequisites/restrictions that you already fulfilled (such as the entry level writing requirement or being a junior). Courses with an asterisk are your best options for Fall quarter.
  - Courses without an asterisk – These courses have a prerequisite or restriction that you may not meet. Please review the information in the parenthesis and in the schedule of classes. If you do not meet the prerequisite, you can enroll into a back-up course, crash the desired course on the first day and speak to the instructor. The Sociology Department will not override prerequisites/ restrictions for these courses.
